Portgordon is a village in Moray, which is renowned as being one of the sunniest and driest counties in Scotland and has a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat, and shop. The county is famed for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, wildlife, and offers wonderful leisure and other recreational opportunities including golf and angling. Spey Bay is 5 miles away and can be reached on foot as part of the Speyside Way. Portgordon is a popular seal-watching spot, and seals can be seen basking on the shore, drawn to the coastline due to its abundance of fish. Portgordon has a nursery and primary school, with secondary schooling found at Buckie High or Milne's High in nearby Fochabers. Portgordon is also served by a general store with a post office, village hall, and community café. The village has a strong community ethos with lots of community activities. Elgin, Aberdeen, and Inverness are all within easy commuting distance, whilst train stations at Keith and Elgin provide direct links to Aberdeen and Inverness. Buckie and Elgin offer major supermarkets, a good selection of independent shops, sporting and recreational facilities. Aberdeen and Inverness provide all the facilities expected from a city, with an excellent selection of shopping, retail parks, associated services, rail links, and airports.

The entrance vestibule is accessed via a uPVC glazed door and within the vestibule built in shelving opens to a hidden storage cupboard. A glazed door leads in the hall which accesses all the properties accommodation. The hall offers storage by way of a large cupboard with double doors. The real wood flooring within the hall continue into the lounge and the dining area of the kitchen. The large lounge has a picture window overlooking the Moray Firth. Within the lounge is the multi-fuel stove which is capable of running the radiators as an alternative to the gas boiler. The first bedroom is a spacious double with built in cupboards and a ensuite shower room. The ensuite shower room is fully tiled and fitted with a white suite with WC, wash hand basin with storage below, and a shower cubicle with mains shower. The further two double bedrooms both have fitted wardrobes with mirrored sliding doors, providing hanging rails and shelved storage. Bedroom 3 has a built-in fold away bed which will remain. The family bathroom consists of a three piece white suite with W.C, wash hand basin with storage below and bath with mains shower. The bathroom is fully tiled with a vinyl floor. Chrome towel rail and mirrored medicine cabinet.

The dining kitchen also enjoys sea views from both front facing windows. The modern kitchen has ample base and wall mounted units with contrasting worktops and tiled splashback. A breakfast bar offers an informal seating area. The integrated appliances include an electric hob with cooker hood above and electric oven. 1 ½ stainless steel sink with drainer and mixer tap. The kitchen has ample space for a dining set and has a tiled floor around the kitchen area and real wood flooring in the dining area. The utility room offers further storage by way of base and wall mounted units with a worktop. Stainless steel sink with drainer and mixer tap and has plumbing for a washing machine and space for a tumble dryer. The utility room has a uPVC glazed door out to the rear garden.

OUTSIDE

The garden to the front of the property is laid with paving and stone chips for ease of maintenance. A paved drive leads to the garage. The large side garden has paving allowing further off road vehicles via a wooden gate. Within the side garden are areas of grass, patio, decking and bedding. A large timber shed has power and also double doors which would make it an ideal summer house. Further shed and greenhouse. The south facing rear garden is paved and currently houses storage areas and a log store which can be removed on request. The garage can be accessed via the rear garden via wooden door. The garage has a metal door and shelving which will remain. The garage currently houses a car ramp which can be purchased by separate negotiation. A ladder in the garage access further storage.
