THE LOCATION

Nestled in the embrace of the Cromarty Firth, Invergordon boasts a rich maritime heritage, famed for its deep-water harbour.

This coastal town has a storied past, once serving as the home of the Royal Navy's Northern Fleet, a backdrop that has played a pivotal role in shaping its history and evolution. Today, Invergordon thrives with a range of amenities, making it an ideal place to call home. Explore the myriad of shops, hotels, and restaurants that dot the charming streets. For families, Park Primary School and Invergordon Academy are a short stroll away, ensuring excellent educational opportunities. This vibrant community offers even more to its residents, including a library, sailing club, golf course, and a modern gym with a community swimming pool, catering to various interests and pastimes.

Commuting to the bustling city of Inverness is a breeze, thanks to the nearby railway station providing regular services. Inverness, located less than twenty-five miles away, offers the best of city living, with a wealth of attractions and facilities. As one of Europe's fastest-growing cities, Inverness presents an array of retail parks, cultural treasures, educational institutions, entertainment venues, and top-notch medical facilities.

Travelling to Inverness is convenient via the A9 trunk road, which is part of the popular North Coast 500 (NC500) driving route. The journey takes approximately thirty-five minutes, providing easy access to a world of opportunities. Inverness is also exceptionally well-connected, with road, rail, and air links to destinations within the UK and overseas.

Discover the vibrant tapestry of Invergoron, where history meets modern living and the world is at your doorstep. Your new home awaits in this thriving coastal community.
