The Area

Tarrel is a scattered community set in the picturesque countryside of Easter Ross, approximately 1½ miles from the village of Portmahomack, a small fishing village situated in an idyllic location on the Tarbat Peninsula. Tarbat Ness Lighthouse, one of the tallest lighthouses in Britain, is about three miles from the village. Located in the village itself are the Old Tarbat Parish Church house and the Tarbat Discovery Centre which is designed to provide visitors with an insight into the area's pictish past: complete with a life-size bronze of a Pictish Queen outside. The village is situated on a sandy bay and has a small harbour. The harbour is home to a small number of fishing boats and is also popular with leisure craft. Portmahomack lies inside the Moray Firth Special Area of Conservation with the associated dolphin and whale watching activity. The village has a primary school, golf course, hotel, a number of places to eat and shop with a sub-post office. The nearest town with full services is Tain lying approximately seven miles to the west. A number of leisure pursuits can be enjoyed in the area.
